SILVER RESERVE™ O/U

OLD-WORLD CRAFTSMANSHIP – ALL AT THE HIGHEST AMERICAN STANDARDS.

Mossberg International™ is proud to present the new Silver Reserve™ over & under 12-gauge shotgun. From its elegant black walnut stock to its customlike fit and feel, the Silver Reserve offers over and under aficionados world-class appointments at a sensible, Mossberg International price. Also true to the Mossberg nameplate, the Silver Reserve is a reliable, durable performer – a classic all-around shotgun on the range or in the field.

At the heart of every Silver Reserve is a low-profile, underlock design box-lock action for superior strength and low profile. This means that the barrels are located lower in the receiver and in closer alignment to the shooter's eyes and hands. In other words, when you shoulder the gun, you'll almost instinctively be on target.

The Silver Reserve's innovative design puts an emphasis on reliability, safety and superior handling. Precision machining and meticulous metal-to-metal fit results in an action that, when snapped closed, has a custom-quality feel. Manual extractors provide a smooth, effortless operation of the action for hassle-free reloading, while also serving as an environmentally friendly way to keep spent hulls from littering the hunting fields.

Equally impressive is its exquisite fit and finish. The Silver Reserve's elegant, satin-finished black walnut stock and forearm, coupled with rich, intricately detailed scroll work and gold-accented game scenes on its receiver, further distinguish the gun from other comparable models costing more – much more.

Safety and safe firearms handling is everyone's responsibility.

“Our new Silver Reserve allows us to deliver a high quality over-and-under shotgun that isn’t going to break the bank,” says Iver Mossberg, Chief Executive Officer of Mossberg International, Inc. “This is a wonderful example, once again, of our commitment of bringing to our customers safe, reliable, high-quality guns at highly affordable prices.”
